DRAFT

6:20 pm Meeting was called to order by Vice Pres. Travis Colombel

Approval of January 14, 2026 Meeting's minutes:

Motion by Dean Savoie; Second by Troy Danos; Unanimously approved

Approval of Treasurer's report:

Motion Troy Danos; Second by Mike Galliano; Unanimously approved

OLD BUSINESS

Troy Danos reports that over 100 calls should be at the Show and he has received much interest from the call-making community.

Courtney Foret currently has 2 Flat Art judges.

Pres. Barry Plaisance is looking into insurance for the Show.

Auction has many decoys because Travis Colombel recently received over 100 and needs help cleaning them.

NEW BUSINESS

Bobby Thompson will be selling tupelo carving blocks at the Show.

Delta Waterfowl is asking for Soap Carving volunteers for their upcoming event.

Volunteers are needed for the SLWC's live auction.

Mike Martin will have an online auction during the Show.

Discussions:

Rafton Lefort is asking for a table at the show as a trade-out for advertising the Show on his digital magazine.

It was decided that no trade for a table will be offered to Mr. Lefort.

In addition to advertising on Talk of the Bayou and the Lafourche Gazette, there was a discussion on purchasing new digital billboard advertisements in the area totaling $1,000.00. Melissa Neal noted that the Club spent over $3,000 on advertising in past years.

Motion was by Matthew Armand to spend $1,000.00 on new digital billboards for this year's Show; Second by Courtney Foret; Unanimously approved

ADJOURN
